

Last year, the Clarke County Planning Commission's Comprehensive Plan Committee held four interactive public input meetings throughout the County to get feedback on the Rural Lands Plan -- a new land use plan to provide guidance for future decision-making in our county's rural areas. The Committee has completed its work and the Planning Commission now seeks public input on the initial plan draft. Two interactive public input meetings have been scheduled.

Millwood/White Post Villages and Agricultural Industry

Monday, April 6 at 7:00PM

Boyce Volunteer Fire Company Social Hall (1 South Greenway Ave., Boyce)

Mountain Areas and Agricultural Industry

Thursday, April 9 at 7:00PM

Blue Ridge Volunteer Fire and Rescue Company Social Hall (131 Retreat Road, Bluemont)

The Rural Lands Plan project website has also been updated. Please visit the website to download a copy of the initial plan draft, a flyer and agendas for the meetings, and to access documents from last year's public input meetings:
